

Cinco Ranch High School Parent Teacher Student Association Scholarship Application (Guidelines)

The Cinco Ranch High School Parent Teacher Student Association (CRHS PTSA) will award scholarships in the amount of $500 to qualifying students. Our annual goal is to match scholarship distributions to the total amount of PTSA dues we have received. Scholarship monies are disbursed directly to the accredited educational institutions in which the scholarship recipients will be attending.

The purpose of the Achievement Scholarships is to recognize CRHS graduating seniors for their contributions of service, leadership, involvement and academics.

Requirement for Application: The applicant MUST:

Be a CRHS graduate during the year of the award and have attended CRHS for his/her entire junior and senior years.

- Applicant and one parent must be members of CRHS PTSA by October 1 of the applicant's junior and senior years. (2 yrs PTSA membership required)
- Perform and log service hours in CRHS PTSA sponsored activities and/or participate in CRHS PTSA sponsored programs.
- Attend an accredited college, university, or technical school.
- Submit a written application and a ½ page typed essay. Applicant may submit additional pages to the written application if needed to explain contributions in service, leadership, and academics.
- Maintain a high school GPA of 2.8 or higher.
- Provide copies of any awards or documents which applicant feels will assist the selection committee.
- Insure application is dated and time stamped by the counselor and turned in no later than 3:00p.m. CST on March 29, 2012.

In addition, any student known to be receiving a full-ride scholarship shall not be considered for this award. Should student receive a full scholarship after being awarded this PTSA scholarship, the student is required to return the PTSA scholarship in full.
